Randy Moyer was born on April 4, 1957 at Ellsworth Air Force Base in South Dakota, to Charlie and Doris Moyer; he is the middle of three boys. Randy grew up moving from Air Force base to Air Force base. He started out in Spearfish until the age of 3 then moved to Wurtsmith Air Force Base in Oscoda, Michigan for a year and a half then to Naval Air Station (NAS) Albany (also known as Turner Field) in Georgia for 2 years. He then moved to Scott Air Force Base in Mascoutah, Illinois where they stayed for 6 years. After that, the family moved to Cheyenne where Randy attended Central High School.

After high school, Randy joined the Army and attended boot camp at Ft Polk, Louisiana! From boot camp, Randy was sent to Warner Barracks in Bamberg, Germany where he remained for 2 years. Randy was an Armor Crewmember (tank driver) and patrolled the borders.

After the Army, Randy attended college, majoring in accounting. He then attended Casper College where he majored in Coal Field Engineering.

Randy worked on oil rigs in Rock Springs for a while then he worked on an Air Force base as a heavy equipment operator and instructor.

After Randy retired, he was the bar manager at the Moose Lodge for 7 years. Randy re-retired two years ago and is enjoying spending time with his lovely wife, Terri, his son and daughter, and his 5 grandkids and 1 great-grandchild!
